Salem Improvement Co.

SOME NEW APPOINTMENTS.

Salem Editor Superintendent of the Reform School.

The state board of education who have charge of the state reform school today appointed R. J. Hendricks, editor of the Salem Daily Statesman, superintendent of the state reform school.

Mr. Hendricks will accept the appointment and takes charge September first. He will reside at the school with his family and will give it the same sort of attention which has characterized his successful career in Oregon journalism. There is no reason why a journalist should not combine the executive and educational qualifications necessary to fill this somewhat difficult position, and the appointee has both in quite a marked degree. The state is to be congratulated in securing the services of a gentleman and his wife at this institution who entertain intelligent and progressive ideas upon education of the young.

F. H. Bryant, who has been engineer and acting superintendent has been appointed assistant superintendent, disciplinarian and engineer.

WILL GET ANOTHER OFFICE.—Portland Daily Dispatch: It is announced that Col. Robert A. Miller, the new register of the Oregon City land office, is soon to lead to the altar a well known school teacher of Salem. It is lucky that Col. Bob did not go to Turkey after all. A big office with no turkeys is not a fat take. The land office with a side position as manager of a home is different. Col. Bob and his fiancée will be the recipients of hearty congratulations until after the honeymoon is over.

BRIDGE FIXED.—J. E. McCoy began this afternoon to carry out his contract with the two counties and the city of Salem to line up the steel bridge across the Willamette river, tighten the bolts, rods and chords, repair the holes, re-plank the bridge and make it safe for use, without interfering with public travel. The holes are to be closed at once and the public need not be afraid to use the bridge right along while McCoy is in charge.

HARD TIMES.—One man says the fellow who went to the seashore yesterday is the wrong man in the right place. Another says a man owing him a dollar has smoked that amount of cigars at his office while telling how hard the times were and that he would soon pay that little bill.

NO FLUTES.—It is easy for plutocrats to say there is need for any further stay of executions. Governor Penney and THE JOURNAL are willing to leave that matter to the representatives of the people, and in the meantime show a little sympathy with those in debt.

FINEST SERVICE.—In Oregon is Lockwood's perpetual messenger service. Always ready, day or night, safe, swift and satisfactory. The blue box is the one to ring up.

WHITE OR YELLOW.—No matter what color your money, J. A. Van Eaton can't let a little bit particular and will give just as big returns on one color as another.

ONE WAY.—To battle hard times for our customers is to give them extra fine selections, full weights and low prices all around. J. A. Van Eaton, grocer.

INDISPENSABLE.—A good fruit jar in putting up fruit. Get the Lightning, at Clark & Eppley's grocery, Court street.

Health is wealth. Take Simmons Liver Regulator for all sickness caused by diseased liver.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

A. J. Johnson and Riley Shelton of Seio, Frank O'Neal of Portland, C. T. Wadlaw and R. E. Mulcahy of the Oregon Pacific, arrived in Salem yesterday.

Clark & Eppley's supply of peaches for family use is unequalled in the city.

City Attorney Geo. G. Bingham goes to Tillamook City for his summer vacation.

Attorney General Chamberlain of Albany, is in the city.

"The Fair," Court street, for bargains.

But it will be quite a hard pull for August.

Delays are dangerous. Take Simmons Liver Regulator in time for dyspepsia, biliousness, and all diseases of the liver.

China Sam, the oyster peddler, is reported to be dead.

The St. Louis shoes at the New York Racket are sold at a very close profit for the best class of goods. Call and examine them. 8-16 2d 1w

Mrs. Morris Brown is visiting her mother at Eugene.

L. L. Patterson joined his family at Newport today.

Prof. D. W. Yoder, principal of the Woodburn schools, returned today from the world's fair. He gained a great deal of information and lost no flesh.

State Printer Frank Baker is in Portland.

A ONE CENT DAILY subscriber up the valley let his paper stop coming and his barn caught fire the next day. The only bad luck a reader of this paper can have is not to have it.

Mrs. Dr. E. B. Philbrook is in California for a season.

County Surveyor Herrick had business at Aumsville yesterday.

A JOURNAL reader says his wife likes this paper because it keeps her husband at home nights. A good reason.

The Salem band gave a very enjoyable open air concert in Wilson avenue last night.

Now is the time to call at the New York Racket for bargains in shoes, hats, shirts, crabs, table oil cloths, Turkey red and white linen damask, overalls, jackets, pants, and many other articles all sold at close cash prices. Call and see. This is the time to save all you can. 8-16 2d 1w

Thos. Holman is home from Harrisburg.

Attorney P. H. D'Arcy returned from Newport today.

Revs. Rook and Parsons and Heizer went to Seattle conference today.

The Woodburn schools will not open until Nov. 1st, owing to lack of funds.

The State School fund will be apportioned next Monday. It will be about $1.25 per capita. Last year it $12,738, in this county.

The gentleman who finds it not very difficult to hold down the governorship of Oregon went to Portland this afternoon.

Mrs. P. J. Beckett accompanied Miss Marie Davis to Portland today.

Mrs. D. C. Sherman is at Portland and will visit Major Sherman at Gladstone tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Cusick, Mrs. E. and Mr. W. Breyman and Wm. England returned from Idanha today. E. M. Waite has not returned as stated in another paper.

Walter Lyon, T. Holverson and Finley Ferrine were passengers for Idanha today.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

The city council met in regular session at 8 o'clock last night, Mayor Gatch presiding, the following aldermen in their chairs: Geo. F. Smith, M. W. Hunt, Anthony Klein, E. M. Lafore, Col. J. Olmsted, J. H. Albert and E. C. Cross, and City Recorder Ed. N. Edes in charge of the records.

The minutes of the previous session of the council were read and approved, whereupon Chairman Smith, on the part of the committee on ordinances, submitted the report on the proposed new license ordinance, and upon motion of Lafore was adopted as submitted and ordered engrossed.

The following current expense accounts were ordered paid: R. E. Moores, $22.46; Dugan Bros., $12.70; John Hughes, $22.68; Brown & Smith, $4.25; Capital Journal, $1.69; H. P. Minto, $22.95; S. D. & T. Co., $10.00; Patton Bros., $15.20; John Knight, $80.00; F. S. Dearborn, $8.40; Statesman, $16.00; A. N. Hales, $5.00; Salem Imp. Co., $50.00; Steiner & Blosser, .75; E. M. Waite Pub. Co., $3.20; J. Morely, $34.00; Salem Gas Co., $13.50, same, $9.60; U. T. Abstract Co., $10.00; Cap. Journal, .30; street lamps, $104.00; Salem, $1. Ry. Co., $445.50; Capital Lumbering Co., $41.88.

Chairman Klein, on the committee on streets and public property then submitted a proposition from a citizen of Albany, offering to line up and tighten the big steel bridge for the sum of $164.00, which he supplemented by a second proposition that the city contract with J. E. McCoy to floor the big bridge at $10.00 per foot and suggest lumber on main structure, and at $9.90 per thousand for Polk county approach thereto, said work of replanking to include the tightening up and lining of the bridge within the figures above quoted, which motion was so amended as to require the proper authorities of both counties to join the city of Salem as parties to such contract, and the motion was amended passed.

By permission of the council C. E. Moores then addressed that body asking that the dirt being removed from the State street improvement now under way, might be placed in certain depressions along the university frontage, and upon due discussion this was granted upon motion.

Chairman Hunt from the special committee on city hall reported work thereon progressing satisfactorily and suggested that certain changes had been made in the character of the foundations which considerably enhanced their safety and solidity. It was announced that the first payment of $5,000 was due the city hall contractors Hutchins & Southwick, and upon motion, warrants in said sum were ordered drawn by the city recorder in their favor in such amount as might be designated by said contractors. This was done to obviate the rather burdensome necessity of handling a warrant in the lump sum of $5,000, and to enable the contractors to better utilize the payment in the discharge of small debts accruing in the progress of their work requiring immediate settlement.

A petition for certain improvements on 12th street was then read and the same duly referred to the committee on streets and public property.

The council then went into committee of the whole, for the purpose of listening to a remonstrance from the citizens of Center street as against the proposed public improvements thereon from Commercial street to its East line. The remonstrance included a prayer for the abatement of the nuisance left there by the Salem Motor Railway Co., and both remonstrance and prayer were ably presented by Judge Walton and ably seconded by ex-Governor Chadwick. Upon the rising of the committee, and after report, the remonstrance was tabled, and the improvements proposed passed into incipient desuetude.

W. J. Irvine's petition for $14.95, the result of a sale of one of his impounded Jersey cows, was referred to the committee on licenses. The ordinance for the grading and curbing of Oak street between 12th and Winter, then went to its third reading, and upon final vote was duly passed.

A written guarantee from the makers of the handsome new hose cart now owned by the city, was then read, pledging the company that built it to keep it in repair for a period of five years. This was referred to the city attorney.

Upon motion, the city attorney, city engineer and the committee on streets and public property were authorized to arrange by sub-contract for a cement curb along the south side of Wilson avenue in lieu of the wooden curb already contracted for, this to be done without relating to the contract now in force.

After the submission of certain bills and accounts against the city and their reference to the proper committee, the council adjourned.

Picture Gallery.

Many people were attracted to Harritt & McIntyre's store the past few days to see the collection of life size crayon portraits in beautiful frames which they distributed free to their customers. Among them were ministers, officials, and many ladies had surprises for their husbands in the shape of beautiful works of art to ornament their parlors, of the husband himself or some departed member of the family. The Harritt & McIntyre picture gallery is a great thing.

WHY THE GOVERNOR ACTED.

Picture of Distress in Umatilla County.

Governor Penney was seen this morning and said he had advised from a number of counties in the state where times were anything but prosperous, as a basis of his letter to the legislators, asking their advice about a special session to pass a law staying execution one year.

He handed THE JOURNAL one letter from a prominent farmer in Eastern Oregon which reads as follows:

FROM UMATILLA, WESTON, Or. Aug. 13, 1893.

GOVERNOR PENNEY: Dear Sir.—The financial situation in Umatilla county is terrible to contemplate.

Last year the grain crop was short while this year the quality may be a little better but not any more bushels per acre while the price is only about three fourths as much as last year. Hence the crop will not any more than pay the expense of raising and what little money there is in the country is locked up, and can not be borrowed on the best of security. These being facts unless something is done for the relief of the people and that soon the creditor class can attach a person's property and sell him out for the amount of his bill notwithstanding the property be actually worth from ten to twenty times the debt.

If the creditor class should attempt that mode of procedure, anarchy, riot and murder will follow. God grant that it may not come to this!

The way it now stands we, as debtors, are at their mercy.

I only see one just and humane way out, and that would be for you, as chief executor of the state of Oregon, if it is in your power, to call the legislature together in extra session to pass a stay law for one year. I know that an extra session of our legislature would be an expensive luxury, but better endured than turn out the yeomanry of this fair state as tramps, a great number of whom, would, under those circumstances, ultimately commit crime and find their way to the penitentiary and jail. This seems to be the opinion of a great many up here, as the only way out.

Please excuse me, if I should seem impertinent. It is not intended. I am only one of many poor farmers that think that we see in the near future a home free from debt; but now it looks dark indeed.

I have been requested by several of my neighbors to write you in regard to the above matter.

School Board Proceedings.

A meeting of the school board was held yesterday and the resignation of Mrs. Grubbe as superintendent of the city schools, which had been presented at a previous meeting of the board, was formally accepted. After taking this action the board unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

Whereas, We have been compelled to accept, in the face of our earnest protests and solicitations to the contrary, the resignation of Professor Sarella G. Grubbe, superintendent of the public schools of Salem, Oregon, therefore be it

Resolved, That the board deeply regrets the loss of the valuable services of so industrious, painstaking and efficient officer.

That the public schools of our city, having attained the acme of their usefulness, are pre-eminently indebted to her invaluable labors for their present high degree of organization and efficiency.

That her refined and dignified methods of intercourse and her superior educational qualifications have won for her both the affection and confidence of pupils and teachers and the esteem and approval of patrons and the board.

And by her superior tact and leadership, out of any tendencies to disorder, conflict of opinion or want of mutual friendship, she has always readily evolved harmony, peace and unity.

No action was taken looking to the election of a successor to Mrs. Grubbe as there was not a full attendance, only Walter Byrd and Johnson and Clerk Holmes being present. It is probable that there will be a special meeting called before the time for the next regular meeting, the first Tuesday in September. A few bills were acted upon and the board adjourned without intimating what action was likely to be taken in the matter of the city superintendent.

Palpitation of the heart, nervousness, tremblings, nervous headache, cold hands and feet, pain in the back, and other forms of weakness are relieved by Carter's Iron Pills, manufactured especially for the blood, nerves and complexion.

All cases of weak or lame back, backache, rheumatism, will find relief by wearing one of Carter's Sensory and Supportive Backache Plasters. Price 25 cents. Try them.

If you are nervous or dyspeptic try Carter's Little Nerve Pills. Druggists make you nervous, and nervousness makes you dyspeptic; either one makes you miserable, and these little pills cure both.

OREGON NATIONAL GUARDS.

In State Encampment at Gladstone Park.

CAMP COMPTON, Aug. 16.—Special.—Mayor Mason of Portland and the city council reviewed the troops last evening.

The camp is very healthy and everyone seems to be contented and glad they are here.

By special invitation of Gen. Compton and Col. Beebe, Brigadier General Carlin, of Vancouver, Commander of the Department of the Columbia, will review the troops this evening at 5:30 o'clock.

General Compton sends THE JOURNAL a program of Brigade Rifle Competition with his compliments, to be held from Aug. 14 to 19.

Co. H. had to go on battalion this morning without a sergeant, as 1st. Sergeant Davis and 2nd. Holman were under arrest for trying to run the guard lines. The writer was in the guard house for the same offense.

Lieut. Nelson of A Co., 1st. Regiment was "run in" the guard house the other night, but being a favorite he was released much to the chagrin of the other men. Such things should not happen as it breeds discontent.

Private Henderson of B Co. leaves for home today.

B Co. is the proper Co. on the ground not a man in the guard house yet. Co. H's headquarters are at the guard house.

Capt. Coffee, of the First Regiment, proved himself to be a very able officer of the day, and had everyone working to the best advantage.

The boys are working the guard line pretty hard, and some of them are un-lucky enough to be caught. It goes hard with prisoners this year. There is no fooling when Col. Beebe is camp commander. One of Company E men insulted a guard when he asked him for a pass, and was sentenced to forty-eight hours in the guard house. Such is camp life.

Miss Carrie Compton, daughter of General Compton, arrived at camp Monday afternoon, accompanied by Miss Lloyd Jessup. They were furnished with a tent, and a guard of honor detailed to watch over them during the lone hours of the night.

Companies B and H mess together. The commissioned officers mess with the men this year.

Lieut. Willis, commanding "B" Co., was on the sick list Monday, but is feeling better now.

Lieut. Leabo is junior officer of the guard today.

Private Collier, "B" Co., is on the sick list.

Capt. Meyers, "H" Co., sports a brand new white helmet, and resembles a wood-stove.

It was very cold this morning, and the boys shivered so hard that the people of Oregon City thought an earthquake was coming.

Camp will not be broken up for ten days, which will make it about next Wednesday.
